MAS DE LA LUNE

ABOUT THE VILLA

8 GUESTS 4 BEDROOMS 5 BATHROOMS

Inside: accommodation at Mas de la Lune is laid out over two floors.

The main entrance leads into the upper floor and a luminous open-plan communal space that's the true hub of the home. Two walls of sliding glass doors drink in the views out to sea, while at the same time allowing seamless access to the terraces. White walls and light, sandy flooring maximise the airy atmosphere, and the furnishings are stylish and summery. This, clean-lined, bright and easy-going stylistic imprint flows throughout the property

To one side of the communal space is a sitting area with four easy chairs gathered around a pair of coffee tables and a curvaceous, hanging metal fireplace with an oval window.

To the other side is a dining table with six cushioned rattan chairs, and a well-equipped corner kitchen with bronzed-wood cabinetry and a central island.

To the left of the main entrance, a door opens into the principal bedroom, a double-aspect double with sea views, doors opening out onto the terraces, and a serene, contemporary-styled en-suite bathroom with tub and rainfall shower.

Stairs with bannisters hewn out of driftwood lead down from the lower floor, which is home to the remaining accommodation:

• three double-twin bedrooms, each with sea views, access to a shared terrace, and an en-suite shower room
• a guest WC

Outside: Mas de la Lune's al fresco spaces have been designed to make the most of the restful views over the beaches and the blue bay of Lakka and the cobalt Ionian Sea beyond.

The communal space and the bedroom on the upper floor open out effortlessly onto an L-shaped terrace that wraps around two sides of the house. The first part, directly outside the living area, is given over to a quartet of quality, well-cushioned sun loungers that have been positioned to make the very best of the views.

The second part of the L incorporates the tempting, cyan-watered infinity pool, a well-shaded and secluded al fresco dining area served by a kitchen with barbecue, plancha and a sink, and a shower room and WC.

The lower floor bedrooms all open out onto a shaded terrace offering more of those fabulous views out over Lakka Bay.

Steps lead down from the lower terrace to a walled courtyard embellished by floral plumbago, where there is a table tennis table.

For the best views, head up to the roof terrace, from where sweeping, 360-degree vistas pan out over the northern tip of Paxos, the sea on both sides of the headland, and the Greek mainland in the distance.

Terraced gardens, planted with low-lying shrubs and dotted with olive trees surround the property, creating a sense of verdant seclusion.

CONSIDERATIONS

Due to the nature of the property, which includes terraces, low walls, and several drops around the grounds, we are unable to accept bookings for groups with children under the age of 12.

Mas de la Lune features a fantastic infinity pool, offering swimmers stunning views while in the pool. There is a drop off the infinity side so we recommend care is taken. Please refer to our general safety page if you would like more information about infinity pools.

The pool has a single depth of 1.5m

Due to the relatively limited number of hydrofoil/ferry connections between Corfu and Paxos in the shoulder seasons, we recommend arriving in Corfu by midday or, alternatively, adding a night in Corfu town the day before and/or after your time in Paxos.

Please note that due to the risk of wildfires, the use of fire pits and barbecues is restricted when the weather is windy or temperatures are high. This is

LAKKA, PAXOS

MAS DE LA LUNE

EXPLORING THE LOCAL AREA

Mas de la Lune rises on a hill near the northern tip of Paxos, overlooking the lovely harbour town, beaches and bay of Lakka. This charming village, which has a decent selection of cafés, bars, shops and tavernas (not to mention boat hire options) is a 10-to-15-minute walk away.

A series of paths from the lead to a selection of beaches, including west-facing Planos beach (about 8 minutes on foot), and Harami (about 5 minutes on foot) on Lakka Bay. There are several other glorious beaches in the northeast of Paxos, including Monodendri and Orkou, which are less than 10 minutes' drive away.

A 15-minute drive south will take you down to Gaios Town, the port of entry and departure, of Paxos which also has frequent boat services to Corfu and Paxos' tiny sister island, Antipaxos. The picturesque little harbour village of Loggos, just a few kilometres down the coast, is also worth a visit either by car or by boat.

Paxos (measuring around 13km from north to south) is situated 15km south of Corfu and about 20km off the Greek mainland. It boasts some of the most stunning beaches anywhere in the Mediterranean and, as it's only accessible by ferry, has managed to remain relatively unspoilt by mass tourism.

The western seaboard of Paxos is dramatic, with cliffs, sea caves and stretches of rugged, rocky coastline, while the east coast is home to gentle sandy beaches and views of the Greek mainland. The hinterland is carpeted with olive groves, which produce some truly excellent oil.

A holiday on Paxos is all about relaxing and taking it easy, all the more so if you book one of our villas on the island.
