VILLA STELLA

ABOUT THE VILLA

8 GUESTS 4 BEDROOMS 6 BATHROOMS

Inside: accommodation at Villa Stella is laid out over two floors.

The main entrance leads in to the upper floor, which is the communal hub of the property.

First is the luminous, airy living room whose lofty wood-beamed ceilings, white-painted walls, sandy-hued floors and sea-blue Murano chandelier create an atmosphere of pure summery hedonism.

To one end is a fireplace, flanked by a pair of sink-in sofas and two square windows that frame the greens of the surrounding gardens. A mirror placed above the mantelpiece reflects the sea views, and two sets of sliding glass pocket doors allow the space to flow out onto a large L-shaped terrace with glorious sea views.

The living area communicates seamlessly with a bright, well-equipped kitchen with corn-blue cabinetry (echoing the palette of the external shutters), a large marble-topped table, and marble work surfaces. Two glass doors bring in the sea views and provide access to a pair of terraces: a wonderful shaded dining terrace and the main, L-shaped terrace outside the living area.

The upper floor accommodation is completed by a guest WC located near the kitchen.

Stairs lead down from the living area to the lower floor which hosts the property's bedrooms, all accessed from a central corridor-hallway. In specific, there are:

- three double bedrooms with sea views, direct access to the pool terrace, and en-suite shower rooms
- a twin bedroom with en-suite shower room

The lower floor also also has a little sitting room, and a shower room and a WC serving the pool.

Outside: Villa Stella's bright interiors flow outside at every opportunity, and no matter where you are in the house, you're only ever a few steps from a dreamy al fresco spot. Connected by paved steps, secluded by stone walls, and enlivened by wide variety of trees, shrubs and flowering plants, the property's multi-level terraces offer hypnotic views out across the blue sea and the islet of Panagia to the Greek mainland in the distance.

The living room and kitchen open out onto a wide, L-shaped terrace with two distinct zones. To one side is a well-shaded dining area with a round table and chairs, while at the front is a sun-kissed sitting area furnished with sofas and easy chairs.

The kitchen also has its very own shaded terrace, which offers a most convivial setting for al fresco dining.

The lower terrace, which is accessed directly from three of the lower-floor bedrooms (as well as the central corridor-hallway and external steps from above) is home to the irresistible zero-edge pool, which appears to float above the coastal olive trees below. Served by six sun loungers and a pair of bamboo easy chairs, it's surrounded by immaculate stone paving and offers a variety of shady and sunny spots. Once settled in here, you'll find it hard to move.

THINK ABOUT

GAIOS, PAXOS

VILLA STELLA

EXPLORING THE LOCAL AREA

Villa Stella is situated just 1.5km north of charming Gaios, Paxos' main harbour, and just over 5km south of Loggos.

Its location makes it ideal both for enjoying the pleasures of Gaios, with its seafront tavernas, cafés, shops and boutiques, and the beaches of the island's east coast. Gaios is the port of entry and departure, and also has frequent boat services to Paxos' tiny sister island, Antipaxos.

Within just 500m of Villa Stella are the gorgeous bays of Kamini and Kloni Gouli, while other beaches, including those of Kaki Lagada and Kipiadi are also easily reachable.

Paxos (measuring around 13km from north to south) is situated 15km south of Corfu and about 20km off the Greek mainland. It boasts some of the most stunning beaches anywhere in the Mediterranean and, as it's only accessible by ferry, has managed to remain relatively unspoilt by mass tourism.

Apart from Gaios, the little harbour villages of Lakka and Laggos offer seafront dining, bars, café-life and boat hire opportunities.

The western seaboard of Paxos is dramatic, with cliffs, sea caves and stretches of rugged, rocky coastline, while the east coast is home to gentle sandy beaches and views of the Greek mainland. The hinterland is carpeted with olive groves, which produce some truly excellent oil.

A holiday on Paxos is all about relaxing and taking it easy, all the more so if you book one of our villas on the island.
