CASALE CASTELLUZZO

Rural tradition near the splendid sandy beaches of San Vito Lo Capo... Casale Castelluzzo is a rustic farmhouse with the kind of cool, shady Mediterranean garden that invites al fresco living. Bougainvillea and jasmine scent the warm air and olive trees waft gently in the breeze, providing the ideal backdrop for restorative afternoon snoozes, lounging by the pool and long moonlit dinners accompanied by a chorus of chirruping cicadas...

ABOUT THE VILLA

6 GUESTS 3 BEDROOMS 3 BATHROOMS

Inside: the main entrance at Casale Castelluzzo takes one into a large hallway with dining table and wood-beamed ceilings. To the left is the spacious living area with several sink-in sofas and armchairs and a fireplace. To the right is the well-equipped country kitchen, with doors leading out to the lovely shaded dining area, and a bathroom with shower.

A staircase leads from the dining area to the first floor where there are two spacious double bedrooms, one of which has an en-suite shower room, a large double-twin bedroom, and a shared shower room. The house is furnished comfortably throughout and retains many fascinating touches that hark back to its former agricultural life.

Outside: the kitchen leads directly onto a spacious covered terrace area with a convivially large dining table. To the left of this is another al fresco dining area situated next to a barbecue. From here the gardens fan outwards offering several other shady seating areas amongst the olive groves and a refreshing pool.

While the interior will provide welcome respite from the hottest hours of the day, the gardens and pool will be your natural habitat at all other times!

CONSIDERATIONS

There is a house owned by a third party close to the pool, and although the pool is not visible guests may hear voices when it is occupied.

Please note that there is no real shallow end in Casale Castelluzzo's pool, which has a border depth of 1.2m and a central depth of 2.4m.

EXPLORING THE LOCAL AREA

Casale Castelluzzo is located in Castelluzzo, a small village near the adorable seaside town of San Vito Lo Capo, with its extraordinarily beautiful white sandy bay, electric blue waters and a great selection of restaurants and bars.

Castelluzzo itself is home to a few shops and a couple of trattorie, which are easily accessible on foot from the villa

The closest beaches to Casale Castelluzzo are at Cala Calazza and Cala Macari (5mins). San Vito's beach, meanwhile, is considered by many to be the most perfect in Sicily and is a 10-minute drive away. It does get busy in late July and August.

For nature lovers and keen walkers, the reserve of Lo Zingaro, with its enchanting bays, crystalline waters and coastal paths, is also an easy drive away.

A little further afield is the atmospheric mediaeval hill-top town of Erice, which offers sublime panoramas over vast swathes of northwest Sicily and the sea, ancient Trapani, historic Marsala, and the glorious Egadi Islands, which can be reached in 15-to-20 minutes by hydrofoil from Trapani.

Gastronomically speaking, one of the most important specialties of northwest Sicily is fish couscous, a dish that is celebrated each year at the end of September at San Vito's International Cous Cous Fest - in itself a great reason to book Casale Castelluzzo for a late summer break!
